

Bird-Friendly Forestry Recommendations for Bottomland Forests in the Carolinas

April 13th, 2017

8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Silver Bluff Audubon Sanctuary 4542 Silver Bluff Rd, Jackson SC 29831

Tickets are $40 for Foresters and $25 for landowners (will qualify for 5 hours of Cat 1 CFE's)

Please RSVP by calling 803-471-0291

Prothonotary Warbler

Swallow-tailed Kite

Northern Parula

Agenda

Welcome and Introduction Sharon Richardson, Executive Director, Audubon South Carolina	08:00
Bird Banding Field Trip – hands on with songbirds Sarah Diaz, Jennifer Tyrell	08:15
Bird Banding Presentation Sarah Diaz, Jennifer Tyrell	09:00
Break	09:30
Introduction to the Birds of Bottomland Forests Matt Johnson, Education Manager, Beidler Forest Audubon Sanctuary	09:45
Bird-Friendly Forestry Recommendations Brandon Heitkamp, Resource Manager, Silver Bluff Audubon Sanctuary	10:15
Project Protho – prothonotary warbler study Matt Johnson	10:45
Break	11:00
Foodplots for Game and Non-game Species Marion Barnes	11:15
Safe Harbor Program and Hitchcock Woods RCW Introduction Bennett Tucker	11:45
Lunch (provided)	12:15
Field Trip to Demonstration Site	1:20
Adjourn	3:00

This workshop has been developed by the following partners: Audubon South Carolina, Clemson Extension and Lowcountry Open Land Trust.