SC Forestry Association Elects Officers

Columbia, SC -- The South Carolina Forestry Association (SCFA) has elected Dave Dodge, Myrtle Beach, SC, 2012 Chairman of the Board of Directors. He is Vice President of Canfor Southern Pine in charge of fiber procurement.

He is a Past President of Georgia Forestry Association and currently works with the South Carolina 20 x 15 Initiative -- a program designed to increase forestry's economic impact to $20 billion by the year 2015.

Dodge has been active in the SC Forestry/Forest Products Working Group of New Carolina (formerly the SC Council On Competitiveness), and is a former member of the SC SFI (Sustainable Forestry Initiative) State Implementation Committee. He has held officer positions with the Society of American Foresters (local chapter and Southeastern Society).

Amy L. McFadden, President of White Oak Forest Management Inc., Georgetown, SC, is Chairman-elect and will lead the Association in 2013. She is Chairman of the SC Board of Registration for Foresters; past Secretary/Treasurer of the Southeastern Boards of Registration for Foresters; Co-chair of SC Log A Load For Kids - Charleston Area; Past Chair of Winyah Chapter of SAF; and an Advisory Committee member for Horry-Georgetown Technical College's Forestry Technician Program.

Joey A. Ferguson, Regional Manager -- SC and Eastern Georgia Operations with Resource Management Service, LLC, Georgetown, SC, was elected Treasurer.

He is Treasurer of the SC SFI Implementation Committee, Chairman of the SC 20 x 15 Initiative's Fire Capacity Task Force, serves on the SC Project Learning Tree Steering Committee, Lower Pee Dee Landowners Association Steering Committee, and Horry-Georgetown Forestry Advisory Board. He is a former member of SCFA's Government Affairs Committee, and a past member of the NC Forestry Association Board.

The South Carolina Forestry Association is a private conservation organization dedicated to sustainable forestry and promoting further growth of the Palmetto State's leading industry -- wood and paper products.
