

Aero-Tech Helicopters

3045 Sandy Bay Road

Kingstree, SC 29556

Job Description

Aerial Application Support Crew Member

Definition

To perform a wide variety task to assist and facilitate aerial application operations.

CHARACTERISTICS

This is an entry level position into aerial application. This position will expose you to multiple disciplines and future opportunities. We work both in the forestry and agricultural markets across the southeast and into the mid-west.

SUPERVISION

Receives immediate supervision from higher level supervisory and management staff.

OTHER FUNCTION STATEMENT

Essential and other important responsibilities and duties may include but are not limited to the following:

1. Act as a support crew member; work with application crew driving and navigating to application tracts or fields and assisting with spray operations.
2. Maintain vehicle assigned to you. Keep the vehicle clean, organized and assist with standard maintenance.
3. Navigate to spray areas with the use of the company provided iPad.
4. During spray operations, assist with product mixing, assist batch truck drivers with loading of helicopter.
5. Assist at shop with aircraft, vehicle, and spray equipment maintenance.
6. Assist with the receiving and organizing of product deliveries.

* Work for 9 months and get paid for 12 months*

Interested applicants please contact Richie Wheeler @ 843.907.0219